

Congregational Representative

The Congregation Representative, selected from each congregation within the circuit, is part of Circuit Convocation Team that

- Determines time, location, and division of duties for circuit convocation.
- Develops format of convocation, including selection of presenters.

The Congregation Representative

- Provides input to the circuit team for the development of the convocation.
- Coordinate with the congregation's pastor the announcement and promotion of the seminar.
- Elicits support through the congregation's officers, Board of Elders, and Board of Education.
- Serves as an advocate for the convocation stressing the opportunity to:
 - Develop a common language and identity so outsiders can recognize us as a faith community.
 - Get to know members of other congregations and see their congregation is a part of a bigger reality.
 - Understand better what their congregation has formally stated is their guideline for doctrine and practice.
 - Become familiar with the comfort and confidence available from our Lutheran confessions.
 - Learn better how to pass on the faith to the next generation.
 - Develop an appreciation for our Lutheran heritage and its relevance in today's world.
- Includes a description of the convocation in the congregational newsletter. (CLCC will provide suggested wording.)
- Includes a bulletin insert for the two weeks prior to the convocation (CLCC will provide a sample) and creates an advanced registration.
